

PRIMARY CARE FAMILY AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE SUPPORT

Delivered by Engender Equality in partnership with Laurel House

Available Now

In-clinic capacity building sessions

Delivered by your PCFSV Support Specialist

- SAVADA Framework for recognising and responding to family and sexual violence in the primary care setting
- Coercive control
- Child sexual abuse
- Mandatory reporting
- Documentation

Coming soon:

- Harmful sexual behaviours
- Vicarious trauma & clinician well-being
- Adult victim-survivors of sexual violence

To book your in-clinic capacity building session call your support specialist directly, the office on 03 6268-1663 or email admin@pcfsv.org.au.

Online training – developed by Safer Families, The University of Melbourne

- Identifying and responding to domestic and family violence
- Identify and respond to intimate partner sexual violence and reproductive coercion

Coming soon:

- Identifying and responding to child sexual abuse

Bookings can be made at the following links:

<https://ecommerce.unimelb.edu.au/identifying-and-responding-to-domestic-and-family-violence-1>

<https://ecommerce.unimelb.edu.au/identify-and-respond-to-intimate-partner-sexual-violence-and-reproductive-coercion-fortasmanianproviders>